Tea

All orders after 4:30 pm (winter) or 5:30 pm (summer) will be served in a to-go container

Sencha

Sencha is a Japanese green tea prepared by steaming its leaves and rolling them into their signature needle-like shape. It is characterized by a distinctly bright, sweet aroma and flavor. $5.50 (served in a small teapot for two)

Genmaicha

Genmaicha is a Japanese green tea blended with toasted brown rice. It is sometimes referred to as "popcorn tea" because when some of the rice grains pop during the roasting process, they resemble popcorn. Genmaicha has a fresh, intense aroma and savory, nutty flavor. $4.25 (cup)

Hojicha

Hojicha originated in Kyoto and is distinguished from other Japanese teas because it is roasted in a porcelain pot over charcoal, whereas, others are typically steamed. Hojicha has an earthy, nutty, slightly smoky flavor. $4.25 (cup)

Jasmine Tea

Jasmine tea is a green tea scented with jasmine flowers and boasts a slightly sweet flavor. Jasmine tea originated in China but is now enjoyed by tea lovers throughout the world. $4.25 (cup)

Iced Green Tea

Iced green tea combines the bright, sweet taste of sencha with the deeper, more complex flavor of matcha to produce a rich and refreshingly chilled blend. $4.25 (cup)

Matcha

Experience Matcha, is a finely milled or powdered green tea that is the only form of tea served in tea ceremonies. Its high quality and distinctive taste make for a special treat enjoyed in small quantities, much like a shot of espresso. To balance matcha's more intense flavor, it is customarily served with popular confections or wagashi. $9.50
